VOLUME LXXI.

GRENADA, MISSISSIPPI, FRIDAY, AUGUST 24, 1923.

NUMBER 14.

If You Want Decency In Your State Government, Go To The Polls Next Tuesday And Vote For Henry L. Whitfield

T. T. O'BRYANT, of Panola County.
Candidate for Railroad Commissioner

T. T. O'Bryant of Batesville, Panola County, candidate for Railroad Commissioner for the Northern District, has served as an official in three of the most important offices of his county. And that he made good in each office is conceded by all who came in official contact with him. Mr. O'Bryant is a successful business man and has a clean record as a private citizen. He has been trying to conduct his campaign on a business basis and on the basis of former experience as a public servant and of success in conducting his own affairs and has not tried to make church affiliations an issue in the campaign. But since it has been brought out that his opponent is the son of a Methodist minister who has served long and faithfully, Mr. O'Bryant feels that the following letter, which is self-explanatory, should, in justice to him, be brought before the pastors, laymen and good women of the North Mississippi Conference:

Gulfport, Miss., Aug. 17, 1923.

"To the Pastors, Laymen, and Good Women of the North Miss. Conference:

"It has just come to me through the proper channel that you are making an effort to elect Will F.

LaGrone as Railroad Commissioner for the Northern District of Mississippi over the Hon. T. T. O'Bryant, urging in his behalf that he is the son of a Methodist preacher who served long and faithfully, which is true. However many of you are ignoring the fact that T. T. O'Bryant has been an active Layman in the Methodist Church for more than thirty years, and if relationship to a Methodist preacher is a qualification for holding a public office he is a cousin of mine. There was also another preacher by the name of O'Bryant who was a cousin to T. T. O'Bryant.

"I am reliably informed also that T. T. O'Bryant assisted in the endowment of the Grenada College, Methodist Hospital, and Centenary funds. He is a District Steward and has been for years in the Sardis District, and his interest is always identified with the progress of the Methodist Church.

"Many of you Pastors and Laymen will recall the fact that I served out my Ministerial life in the North Mississippi Conference, and am now on the Super-annuated list.

"Yours in Christ,
"(Signed) Rev. W. J. O'Bryant,"

GRENADA SCHOOLS WILL OPEN SESSION MONDAY, SEPT. 10

City Superintendent Addresses School Patrons. New Pupils to be Classed Week Preceding Opening. Ex-Gov. Brough of Arkansas to Dedicate New Building.

To School Patrons:

The Grenada City Schools will open in all departments and grades on Monday, September 10th. The Board of Trustees and city superintendent of schools extends to you and yours best wishes for a year filled to the brim with fruitfulness. The determination of every one concerned with Grenada Education is to raise its standards of value and service to the community so that it may merit your continued good will and encouragement.

During the week beginning September 4th an opportunity will be given new and unclassified pupils to confer with the superintendent and the principal of the elementary school and thus determine their places in the school. The superintendent will be at his office in the new high school building from eight o'clock till five each day and Miss Lizzie Horn will be in her office at the other building on the same days and hours. Those interested are reminded that all pupils whose final reports at close of last year were marked "retained" are still retained. When the judgment of a teacher moves her to retain a pupil another year in a grade that pupil must enter the same grade at the opening of school, regardless of summer work. The high school grades (9-12) will attend the new high school building. We are pleased to announce that this building will be ready for the opening of school. Every high school pupil who attended school here last session knows his and her place for the next session. Schedule and program of work will be explained in detail on Tuesday morning.

Pupils Come on Tuesday
Monday will be taken up with the details of organization and classification. No pupils will report for active work till Tuesday, September 11th. List of books and other material will be made known at that time or pupils already classified can find out same from the school offices earlier.

BREWER AND STEPHENS SPEAK IN BEHALF OF H. L. WHITFIELD

Sen. Stephens holds Up Whitfield as Ideal Citizen. Defines Mudslinging. Gov. Brewer Cites Record Made by Bilbo and Russell as of Greatly Increased Offices—This and Craft Account for Increase in Taxes. Bilbo Created Over 500 New Offices. Brewer Says They Have Been Taking Care of Their Hangovers at Expense of Taxpayers. Have Even Overridden the Law in Caring for Pets at Colleges. Pleads for a United Effort for Whitfield.

A flood of Whitfield oratory and an avalanche of cold facts were turned loose in Grenada at a Whitfield rally last Friday night by former Gov. Earl Brewer and United States Senator Hubert Stephens. The meeting was in the city park. Dr. J. R. Countiss, president of Grenada College, presided and presented the speakers. He took occasion to say that he thought it was generally recognized now as not only the right but the duty of the Christian ministry to take an interest in public affairs, and in politics as related to the selection of men for office. He pointed to the past and stated that the eyes of the nation were turned towards Mississippi.

In presenting Senator Stephens he said that about one year ago a Grenada County audience assembled at that very spot to further his candidacy, and that he had had the honor and the privilege of knowing the senator for a number of years, and that it gave him pleasure to bear witness to his splendid life and to his lofty aims.

Senator Stephens spoke for about 40 minutes. He referred but one time to Mr. Whitfield's opponent by name. He said that if he were giving his subject he would say that it was "What Whitfield Is and What Whitfield Is Not." He paid a splendid tribute to Mr. Whitfield's spotless life and to what he had stood for as state superintendent of education and as the head of the greatest girl's school in the south, and he asked, "If you would entrust your daughters to him in their tender years, would you not trust him with the management of your state government?" He said that much ado was being made by one man about Whitfield's not engaging in joint debate with his rival, but, he asked, "What has a governor to debate about after he is governor, did anybody ever hear of a governor's debating society?"

He said that all the brush and rubbish aside, the issue before the people was one of morality, one of decency against indecency. He stated that he felt sure sure of the result and he prophesied a majority of 50-

000 on Aug. 28 for Whitfield. He asked that the people make the verdict so decisive as that those who have been running with the man opposing Whitfield and who have been winking at his clown acts and his official obliquity might read a lesson that would last them for several years.

Senator Stephens said that there had been much misuse or misinterpretation of the use of the word "mudslinging." He said telling the truth about a man's record was never "mudslinging" and he warned the public not to allow those who did not want their records discussed and who had made official mud and daub to hide behind any sort of niceties or ethics so as to keep their bad record from being aired. Indeed he said it was the duty of patriotic speakers to tell the public the bad as well as the good.

Gov. Brewer Presented.

Dr. Countiss then presented former Gov. Brewer. He stated that Gov. Brewer had a unique record in Mississippi politics, and that an honor had been conferred upon him by the people of Mississippi that had never been conferred upon any other man when he was nominated for governor in 1911 without opposition. What other men were now striving for was handed to Mr. Brewer on a silver platter, he said. He said that the governor had shown himself worthy of the honors conferred upon him, and that in his judgment much of Mr. Brewer's success dated back to the good old mother of his, who answered when asked the day he was inaugurated governor, "Are you not mighty proud of him?" "Yes, but I believe I was happier and prouder the day he gave his heart to God and joined the church."

Gov. Brewer stated in the outset of his speech that he felt that he owed much to the people of Grenada County; that when a citizen of Water Valley and a candidate for the state senate against three much older and very prominent men 28 years ago, it was Grenada County that organized a Brewer club and helped him win a victory, and that regard-

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MANAGEMENT PLEASED DECLARES NOMINEES AT GLENWILD HOG SALE

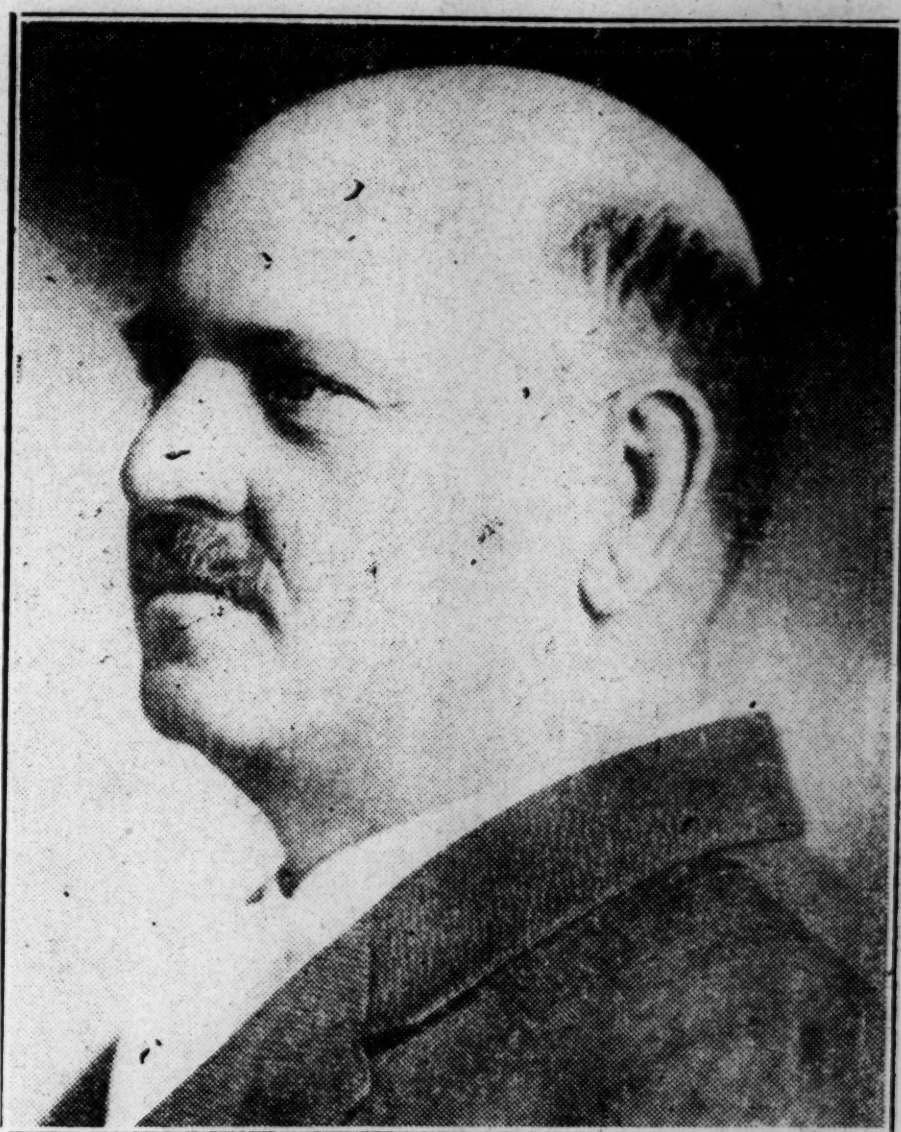

At Meeting Saturday Morning, J. A. Gibson, Declared Nominee for Magistrate, Beat 1, and J. D. Fisackerly in Beat 5. Women Not Denied Right to Vote for Failure to Pay 1921 Poll Taxes if Otherwise Qualified.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Grenada County was called together at the court house in Grenada last Saturday morning Aug. 18, 1923, at 10 o'clock. T. E. Moody had proxy for R. V. Bridgers and Sam Mims, Jr., were present in person. A majority of the committee being present either in person or by proxy, the chairman stated that he had called the committee together to correct what he regarded as an error in regard to the nomination of candidates for justice of the peace, district 1. As the returns showed, the chairman stated that the total vote for the four candidates was 1073, being divided as follows: J. H. Owens 387; J. A. Gibson, 317; B. F. Turner, 252 and S. M. Bickerstaff.

Incllement Weather Prevents Many From Attending. Average Price of Sows and Gilts Sold Was $44. Only Purebred and Registered Hogs Offered. Rich in Blood of Famous Sires, Scissors, Jack T. Extremator and Jackson's Orion King.

On account of the heavy rainfall Friday night and Saturday morning, a great many who had planned to attend the purebred sow sale at Glenwild plantation, five miles south of Grenada, Saturday were prevented from coming. However, despite the weather, there was a goodly number of breeders. The sale began promptly at 1:30 p. m. with Col. H. L. Iggleheart of Elizabethtown, Ky., acting as auctioneer.

In combining the two herds from Fernwood Farms at Fernwood and the Pine Crest Farm at Charleston, both of which had been very closely culled during the past year, Glenwild Plantation has assembled over 300 head of extremely high-class sows and gilts of breeding age. These are sows rich in Orion Cherry King breeding and show those qualities which have made the Orion Cherry Kings the leading family of Durocs. They possess in a marked degree the type smoothness, good color, high

HENRY L. WHITFIELD
Mississippi's Next Governor

Jackson, Miss., August 20th.—At a meeting of the friends of Henry L. Whitfield held in Jackson several days ago, Mr. Whitfield cautioned his supporters against any mudslinging or personalities, stating that he had conducted his campaign upon a high plane thus far and he wanted to complete it in the same way. Mr. Whitfield and his supporters will adhere strictly to this plan of action. It will indeed be a refreshing change for a man to be elected governor without making the welkin ring with charges, or even alluding to a "subsidized press" eager to "bend the pliant hinges of the knee, that patronage may follow." Such is the prospect, however, strange as it may seem. So mote it be.

Concluding an extended and well-written editorial sketch of Henry L. Whitfield, leader by around 20,000 plurality over Ex-Governor Theo. G. Bilbo, his nearest opponent in the race for governor in the first primary the Winston County Journal, of Louisville, in its issue of August 17 had the following:

"As your state superintendent of education he made good and had the handling and disbursement of hundreds of thousands of dollars. As President of the I. L. & C. (now M. S. C. W.) he made good and had the handling and disbursement of hundreds of thousands of dollars of the people's money. He has shown executive ability of extremely high order in every position he has filled. "He has been engaged for thirty years of his life in the greatest work that could engage the attention of any man. Thank God he is no politician, but he is a MAN. An honest, upright, intelligent Christian man, who lives in the lives and hearts of the purest and best men and women on earth, because his life work has been dedicated to the upbuilding and molding of character and not to building up political machines to aid in the destruction of all that is best for the people of Mississippi. This, Mr. Voter, is the kind of man the people want to see elected Governor of Mississippi on August 28th.

"Do your duty on that day! Elect Henry L. Whitfield and factionalism will receive a death blow in our state. We will have no more scandals, no more investigating committees, no more nauseating court trials and the public washing of dirty political linen."

In the Leland Enterprise of Aug. 18 was printed the following editorial paragraph:

WIN WITH WHITFIELD

"The above slogan seems to be the winner in the race for governor of Mississippi. In this race Henry L. Whitfield has conducted a clean, dignified campaign and has won friends to his side. He had a commanding lead in the first primary of over 19,000. The people realize that they must elect Whitfield for a better Mississippi. This can be done if the people do not neglect their duty. It has been the custom in former elections to see a falling off in the number who cast their ballots. This year, let those who are for Whitfield go to the polls and vote and see to it that their friends also vote. If this is done the majority will be the largest received by any candidate for governor."

REPORT SHOWS GRENADA'S HEALTH TO BE EXCELLENT

Submitted to City Council by Dr. J. W. Young, City Health Officer for Year Ending July, 1923. Death Rate Only 7.8 per cent. Tells of Work Done During Year.

The following report from Dr. J. W. Young, City Health Officer, is one that should be read by all Grenadians and contains information of which they all should feel highly proud:
To the Honorable City Council:
I beg to make to you this, my annual report, beginning with July, 1922, and ending July, 1923.

Within the past year we have had 33 deaths—14 white, of which 5 were males and 8 females; colored, of which 7 were males and 12 females. There were 5 over 84 years old, one 89, and balance ranging in age from 3 days to 65 years. Five died of tuberculosis—3 colored and 2 white; 2 died of pneumonia, both colored; cause of death of others not given.

You will notice that the deaths are not quite ten in a thousand of our population, or approximately 7.8 of 1%. I challenge any city anywhere to produce a better record.

During the year I have visited the public schools—white and colored. I examined four grades in the white school, looking for skin eruptions, bad teeth and tonsils. I vaccinated 20 or more white children, and 40 or 50 colored. In company with County Health Officer Clanton, we visited several dairies. Several were in very unsanitary condition, and we told them to get everything in a perfectly sanitary condition at once, and should they fail to do so we would have to advise the people to cease buying their milk.

LESSON FOR SEPTEMBER 2

PAUL, THE APOSTLE

LESSON TEXT—Acts 2:3, 6-10; Philippians 3:1-4.
GOLDEN TEXT—"I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."—Phil. 3:14.
REFERENCE MATERIAL—Romans 1:17; 15:16-21; II Cor. 11:1-12.
PRIMARY TOPIC—How Paul Became a Christian.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul the Missionary.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul the Dauntless.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul's Contribution to Christianity.

Paul's name stands second to none in the annals of history. The story of his life is of perennial interest.

I. His Birth. (v. 3 cf. Phil. 3:17).
He was born in Tarsus of pure Hebrew stock. He could with legitimate pride boast of godly ancestry. It is highly important that each generation should so live that no handicaps be placed upon their children.

II. His Home Training. (3:5).
His parents were pious people and carefully reared him according to Jewish standards. Most religious leaders spring out of such homes; for example, Moses, Samuel, Timothy. Stern principles of integrity were inculcated in him thus giving him strength of character to impress the world. He was strongly attached to the peculiarities of the Jewish religion. The heroes which molded his life were such men as Joseph, Moses, David, Isaiah instead of Achilles, Hercules and Ulysses.

III. His Education. (Acts 2:3).
1—His Patriotism. He was brought up to love his nation. He proudly affirmed, "I am a Jew." Paul was a nationalist of the true type. Children should be taught to love their nation.
2—A Love for the Bible. The Scriptures were to him the very Word of God. What was found written therein was the final word for him. Loss of love for the Bible and implicit faith therein is a tragedy.

3—Zealous for God. (Acts 22:3). The word zealous literally means "to boil." Zeal without knowledge is better than no zeal at all.

4—Conscientious. His supreme aim was to possess a conscience void of offense. Conformity to the dictates of conscience is demanded. It is the law of life for every man that because of the blight of sin the conscience needs to be taught by God's Word.

5—He Had a Trade. Every Jewish boy, regardless of his father's wealth, was taught a trade. It was a saying among them that, "He who failed to teach his son a trade, taught him to steal." This would be a good plan in our modern days.

IV. His Conversion. (Acts 22:6-10).

1—On the Way to Damascus. (v. 6). He was the enemy of Christ and was on his way to Damascus authorized to bring bound such Christians as might be found to Jerusalem to be punished. While on this journey he had time for reflection and conscience began to work.

2—A Light from Heaven. (vv. 6-9). As this light burned through the sky over him, he fell to the ground humiliated. Accompanying the light was a voice saying, "Saul, why persecutest thou me?" Upon inquiry as to who was speaking, the Lord declared that it was Jesus of Nazareth whom he was persecuting.

3—An Honest Inquiry. (v. 10). He was willing to do what the Lord willed, so he was instructed to go to Damascus where fuller light would be given.

V. His Estimate of Christ. (Phil. 3:7-9).

When he came to know Christ, he counted all but loss in comparison with Him. He saw Christ as the supplier of righteousness. He who has Christ and His righteousness has everything worth while.

VI. His Transcendent Aim. (Phil. 3:10-14).

1—His aim was to know the power of Christ's resurrection, even that he might be made conformable to His death and have fellowship in His sufferings.

2—He desired to attain unto the resurrection of the dead. This refers to the first resurrection in which the believers shall come forth from among the wicked dead.

3—He pressed toward the mark. He did not count that he had yet attained. He depreciated his present attainments, perceived the dignity of his calling and pressed forward with all his strength in order that he might win the prize. The conditions which determine growth are first, a decided dissatisfaction with present attainments; second, perception of the height of truth, and third, a resolute determination to attain at whatever cost.

Humanity.

Humanity is indeed a happy lot, when we can repeat ourselves in others, and still be young as they.—Dickens.

Evidence of Immortality.

Our dissatisfaction with any other solution is the blazing evidence of immortality.—Emerson.

The Age Before Us.

Our ancestors have traveled the iron age; the golden age is before us.—St. Pierre.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 26

BARNABAS, THE GREAT HEARTED

LESSON TEXT—Acts 4:36-37; 11:19-30.
GOLDEN TEXT—"He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith."—Acts 11:24.
DEVOTIONAL READING—Psalm 96:1-10.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Barnabas and Paul Tell about Jesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How Barnabas Helped the Church.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Barnabas Showed a Generous Spirit.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christian Character Illustrated by Barnabas.

I. Barnabas, the Man (Acts 4:36).
His original name was Joseph. When he became a Christian, he was renamed Barnabas signifying the change from the old life to the new. This was a common custom, for example, Simon to Peter and Saul to Paul. The name means "Son of Prophecy" or "exhortation and consolation." This shows not only the nature and spirit of Barnabas but that he possessed the gift of hortatory preaching. The exercise of this gift made him a son of consolation.

II. Barnabas, the Philanthropist (Acts 4:37).
So fully had the divine love permeated the very being of Barnabas that seeing the need of his fellow-believers, he sold his property and brought the money and laid it at the apostles' feet. His generosity expressed itself in deeds, not in pious words and promises. He counted nothing his own while his brethren were in need. He was in no sense obliged to do this as there was no such thing in the early church as a binding law of a community of goods. Private ownership of property was recognized, Acts 5:4.

III. Barnabas, the Christian Statesman (Acts 11:19-30).

The violent persecutions of the church scattered the disciples. As they went they preached the Gospel, and churches were established. The most conspicuous of these was at Antioch, the capital of Syria, because it became the most important center in the spread of Christianity. Everything went well as long as the Gospel message was preached to the Jews only. The idea held among the disciples at that time was that the Gentiles were excluded. But at Antioch certain of these disciples deliberately preached Christ among the Greeks. The seal of the Lord was upon this ministry and great multitudes believed and turned to the Lord. The news of this revolutionary preaching reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem and caused not a little excitement and discussion. The church decided to send a committee to Antioch to look into the matter.

1. Barnabas Sent to Antioch (vv. 22-24). Fortunately in this case they sent the proper man. Barnabas was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and faith. Therefore, he had spiritual discernment and broad sympathy. Good men are quick to see good. When he came to Antioch he saw the grace of God and was glad. If we have grace in ourselves, we will be able to see grace in others. He exhorted and urged them forward in their work. Men like Barnabas are much needed today in our churches—men of vision and Christian courtesy and sympathy.

2. Barnabas Goes After Saul (vv. 25-26). The work so prospered that help was needed, so Barnabas went after Saul. These men had been together before. After Saul's conversion, he came to Jerusalem and tried to join himself to the disciples but they were afraid of him. Barnabas befriended him (Acts 9:26-27). He saw that Saul was really a converted man. Being a good man he could see there was good in Saul. Barnabas thus introduced Saul to his great work as apostle to the Gentiles.

3. Disciples Called Christians (v. 26). After a year of teaching by Paul and Barnabas, the name Christian was given to the disciples. The name was associated with the teaching. Paul taught the vital oneness of the believer with Christ so it was natural that the disciples should be called Christian.

4. Barnabas and Saul go to Jerusalem With Alms (vv. 28-30). Because of the oneness of Christians with Christ and with one another, the distress of the brethren at Jerusalem must be relieved by the gifts of the believers at Antioch. These gifts had a powerful effect in removing the suspicions of the brethren at Jerusalem.

This is but the nursery ground, from where we are to be transplanted into the great forest of God's eternal universe.—F. W. Robertson.

Among Men.

They are the weakest-minded and the hardest-hearted men that most love change.—Ruskin.

A Bad Paymaster.

The devil knoweth his own and is a particularly bad paymaster.—F. M. Crawford.

CARD FROM WALKER WOOD

Winona, Miss., Aug., 17—Walker Wood, editor of the Winona Times, issued the following card today:

TO THE PEOPLE OF MISSISSIPPI:
After an aggressive and progressive campaign of five months by me for Secretary of State, a decision has been rendered by the people between my worthy opponent, Hon. Jos. W. Power and myself. During the campaign I visited 78 out of the 82 counties, I was a stranger in some of the counties, but in all of them I was extended every courtesy that is characteristic of Mississippians.

The majority saw proper to vote against me. Their decision is accepted without illwill or malice. My personal efforts will be to make my opponent's administration profitable to the people. To the thousands who honored me with their suffrage I wish to say that I hold the deepest gratitude.

My editor friends were kind and untiring in their consideration of me personally and my candidacy. I thank each of you from the depths of my heart.

I love Mississippi and my people. I think more of them today because I know them better. We have a wonderful state, with great possibilities, and marvelous things will be done in the future in our commonwealth. I will assume the editorship of my paper, The Winona Times, and continue to work to make Mississippi a greater state of the states of the greatest country in the world.

Yours truly yours,

LAGRONE CORRECTS O'BRYANT

West Point, Miss., Aug. 17, 1923.
Mr. T. T. O'Bryant,
Batesville, Miss.

Dear Sir:
In an advertisement which you have had published in a number of papers over the district exploiting your candidacy for Railroad Commissioner for this the third, or Northern district of Miss., you make the claim that you received a large plurality of the total vote in the first primary.

Did you not know when you wrote this advertisement that this was not a fact, that the official count was, as given out by the State Executive Committee, LaGrone 31,124, O'Bryant 30,765?

You further claimed that you received a clear majority in a large number of counties. Did you not know when you made this statement that you received a majority in only four out of the thirty-one counties?

You also claimed that you were the choice of the people. Did you not know when you made this claim that there was a majority vote against you in the district of more than 24,000 and this out of a total vote of a little less than 86,000? Did you not know further that I led you in your own home county of Panola and that there was a majority against you in your home county of nearly 700 votes? Did you not know too that I received in my home county of Clay 1918 out of a total of 2314 votes cast?

I repeat did you not know when you wrote this advertisement there was a majority vote against you of more than 24,000 votes?

Yours very truly,
(Signed) WILL F. LAGRONE,
Candidate for Railroad Commissioner

I want to thank all of you who cast your vote for me and express my appreciation for the many kindnesses shown me during my candidacy.

FOR COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE

Mr. Garner, who was appointed by Gov. Bilbo in 1916, should stand on his record rather than make slanderous eleventh hour insinuations relative to his opponent, in an effort to detract attention from his lack of accomplishments.

Mr. Garner has spent within the last four years, $735,639.00 of your money, while all the executive departments of the state, combined, have spent only $673,480.00. Have you gotten your money's worth?

How about Garner and the oil mills fixing the price of cottonseed in 1919?

How about the cattle tick situation?

Mr. Holton spent three years in Florida, and left of his own choice, to accept a position at Tupelo, Miss., with the Chamber of Commerce, at an increase of $400.00 in salary. The financial condition of the country at the time he left Tupelo, caused the organization to cease operation.

As evidence of his standing in Tupelo, in the recent primary he received 609 votes, while the combined vote of his opponents was 780, and this was in the home of one opponent. Does this not show that Holton made good?

Mr. Garner is the only man who has ever questioned Mr. Holton's leaving the employ of the State Plant Board, and though he was chairman of the Board, he has waited until this late hour to offer criticism. Why? The answer is evident.

Mr. Holton was elected principal of an Agricultural School in Warren County, and at the end of the first session was re-elected, but resigned to accept a larger school of the county at a raise in salary of $400.00.

He has recommendations from the County Supt. of Education, President of the County School Board and other prominent citizens of Warren County, as to his success as a school man and agriculturalist.

As proof of Holton's standing where best known, we submit the following, taken from the first primary:

Holton	1835
Opponents	1021
KEMPER (Where Holton was born):
Holton	1409
Opponents	1065
WARREN (Where Holton has taught for two years):
Holton	2477
Opponents	1608

Holton's record in public and private life will stand the acid test. He has made good, and every change has been a promotion. He is an ideal selection to head Mississippi's Department of Agriculture.

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING TUESDAY EVENING

Miss Lorah Dill Becomes the Bride of Walter W. Gunn of Noxapater, Miss.

A lovely August wedding took place Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Dill on N. Main avenue when their daughter Miss Lorah Dill, became the bride of Mr. Walter W. Gunn of Noxapater, Miss. Fifty guests were welcomed at the home to witness the impressive ceremony which was solemnized at 7:30 o'clock.

The Rev. Rev. T. J. White of the North Baltimore, Ohio, Christian church performed the marriage service using the single ring ceremony. The bride and groom left at 9 o'clock over the Big Four for a short visit in Indianapolis, Ind., before starting on their two weeks' trip in the south visiting in Memphis, Tenn., and at the home of the groom's parents at Noxapater, Miss. The bride wore away a beautiful dress of brown crepe with brown velvet and French blue trimmings. Her hat was of brown with facing and trimmings of French blue.

The wedding of this young couple is the culmination of a southern romance, the bride and groom meeting in their work in southern schools. The bride is a charming young lady very accomplished as a musician. She graduated in 1918 from the Indiana College of Music and since then has been a private teacher of music in French Camp and Grenada, Miss., the past three years having been spent at Grenada. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gunn of Noxapater, Miss., and is a graduate of the Mississippi State College. He is the Superintendent of the High School at Como, Miss., where his bride will teach with him giving private music in the school.

The young couple will be at home at Como, Miss., after September 1. The out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. O. E. Slaughter and daughter of Grenada, Miss. Nellie Shook of Lima, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Smith of Jackson Center and Miss Leona Dill of Columbus.—Sidney (Ohio) Daily News, Aug. 15.

MURPHREE WILLIAMS

A wedding, the news of which will interest the many friends of the bride in Grenada, took place in Denver, Colorado on the evening of Wednesday, August 8, when Mrs. Eva May Williams became the wife of Mr. A. W. Murphree, the ceremony being said by the pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church at the church.

Mrs. Murphree will perhaps be better remembered in Grenada as Miss Eva May Orman. She was born and reared in Grenada being the daughter of the late H. C. Orman and Mrs. Orman. For a number of years she has been making her home in Denver. She has, since early childhood, been taught to put the affairs of home among the first things of life and, since reaching womanhood, she has shown that she is admirably fitted for the duties and obligations she has assumed. Her interest in religious and church work has been exceptional and the Christian training that has been given her since her baby days has not been in vain. Mrs. Murphree is an unusually lovable young woman; she has a gracious and sweet disposition that enables her to go cheerfully forward in the face of obstacles that would daunt the less hopeful. Her husband no doubt realizes that a sweet and precious jewel has been committed to his care and keeping.

Mr. Murphree holds a responsible position in Denver with a large loose leaf concern; he is well educated, having received his college training at Vanderbilt University. He has a number of relatives in Mississippi, one of them being Dennis Murphree of Calhoun County, recently nominated Lieutenant-Governor.

The Sentinel extends its heartiest congratulations to the young couple for a long life full of happiness.

FLANAGAN-MIERS WEDDING ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Flanagan announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Frances Marion, to Mr. Walton Lee Miers of Grenada, Miss., the wedding to take place the latter part of September. No cards.

The above announcement will be filled with interest to the many friends of the bride—elect who is a most popular and charming young woman of our city and their very best wishes will be showered upon her in advance of this happy occasion.—Greenwood Commonwealth.

W. M. Crickman left the latter part of last week to spend his vacation with relatives in Bolivar, Tenn.

DODGE BROTHERS ANNOUNCE IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENTS

Dodge Brothers have not simply brought out a complete new line of motor cars. They have done something infinitely wiser and better than that.

They have brought new beauty, new riding ease and new mechanical perfection to the product on which their reputation as builders has been founded.

They have built a better and a more desirable line of motor cars—yet basically and fundamentally the identity of their product remains the same.

The same sturdy engine is under the hood; the same dependable chassis, improved in numberless details, underlies the body.

But the rear springs—now underslung—have been materially lengthened. The wheelbase, too, is longer, and the combined result is a notable improvement in riding qualities.

Bodies of all types have been designed to give improved appearance, and greater comfort. Lower, longer, with deeper seats and more leg room, the lines of these new cars are low-swung and graceful—the interiors are comfortable and roomy.

New head lamps and fenders, especially designed by Dodge Brothers to conform with the general lines of the car—a long straight hood and cowl effect—longer and wider running boards—unusually wide doors—combination stop signal and tail lamp—and instruments attractively grouped on raised panel—are a few of the numerous body innovations common to all types.

Combining these features with important mechanical improvements too numerous and technical to enumerate here, it is not extravagant to predict a reception for these cars unprecedented in automotive annals.

IT BEGAN SEVERAL YEARS AGO.

The work of redeeming Mississippi from the hands of the crowd which has, as Grover Cleveland once said, "prostituted public office for private gain," and whose chief business is running for office and politics, began several years ago. It began in 1918. But for some thin skins and political, though well meaning, impossibles, who put the election of "their'n" before more important things in 1919, the present political degenerate and brainless excuse would never have been Governor.

The work of redemption started because there were men who dared to tell the truth and who laid the official doings and their records of these men bare before the gaze of an anxious and suffering public.

Last year, Hubert Stephens was elected United States Senator after one of the most remarkable campaigns the State ever witnessed. Between the first and the second primaries, the forward looking citizenship of the State buckled on their armor and, backed by the good women, achieved another victory which was but a forerunner of what was to come this year.

As conclusive proof that the tide for the State's redemption was speeding onward, note that all the "subs" and satellites and hangers-on of the Bilbo-Russell crowd, and attendant parasites, who were candidates for State offices in the first primary went down in ignominious defeat. Rush Knox got two of them at one time and then had 25,000 votes to spare.

Macey Dinkins of well known fame in that faction was run over by George Riley with nearly 50,000 votes to spare.

Tom Henry beat Bagnell—yet Bagnell swore by the "pint of his knife" that Henry's angora was his by 40,000 votes. Henry turned the tables on him.

Stokes Robertson lost, because he could not get loose from Lee Russell.

The people are just done with that bunch. They realize that offices have been multiplied; that taxes have grown more and more; that property assessments have increased throughout the State 250 per cent in the last seven years; that many citizens of the State are moving away and that instead of conditions growing better, they are growing worse.

Thus it is that the word has gone forth "Down with Bilboism, Russellism and every other ism that is even fortieth cousin to these isms."

And all this came about because somebody took the time and the trouble to tell the truth to the people. When the people have all the facts they can be depended upon for righteous judgments.

Complete the work by voting for Whitfield next Tuesday.

SUPPOSE THE BOYS INSURRECT AT THE COLLEGES?

Suppose when the University and the A. & M. College and other State institutions where there are boys open this fall and the boys conclude that they want to do a little insurrecting and the college heads and the trustees have the temerity to stand up before these boys and talk to them about obedience to law and constituted authority, the boys in answer should say: "Well are you not violating the law, some of you every month by paying yourselves more than the people of Mississippi, through their law-making body said you should be paid, and this with the approval and sanction of the trustees, and it seems to us that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander?"

The boys would be far less censurable than the board of trustees or those college heads and others on the pay roll violating the law. It is up to older heads to set right examples in all things and especially is this true of those who are charged with molding the lives of the youth of the land.

IF ANYTHING AT ALL, A BLOW.

The worst blow that has come to Whitfield came when Lee Russell announced for him. If Russell's announcing for Whitfield were anything at all, it would be a blow. If the ding looney knew how little the people of Mississippi care about what he thinks about anything, he would cease to make public statements. Lee Mary tried to get the newspapers at Jackson to carry a statement that he was for Whitfield now, but they said "nay Lee;" so he went to the Mississippi coast and straightway hunted a newspaper reporter and got himself into print as being for Whitfield. Lee, did you know that the people of Mississippi had made up their minds to elect somebody this time that you do not want, and it happens that it is Whitfield? You killed your "Eli as dead as h—" in the first primary. Whitfield's victory is assured in spite of Lee Russell's support.

Those things in one's private life which go to affect the character of the public officer he would make are legitimate subjects of discussion when a man asks to be entrusted with sacred public duties.

Vote for Whitfield next Tuesday and thereby keep up the good work which has been so auspiciously begun.

Governor Bilbo's Pastor and Deacon Say He is Clean And Consistent; Praise His Unselfish Devoted Christian Character and Brands Insinuations of His Political Enemies as False

Poplarville, Miss., August 13, 1923.

TO THE PEOPLE OF MISSISSIPPI:

It has come to our attention that Governor Bilbo's standing as an upright Christian gentleman has been questioned by his Political enemies, and in justice to Governor Bilbo and his Christian family and friends, we desire to make this statement: Governor Bilbo is a member of the First Baptist Church of Poplarville, Miss., and a member of the Men's Bible Class in Sunday School. He was elected by the Pearl River County Baptist Association in 1922, a delegate to the Baptist State Convention, which was held in Grenada, and he attended the said convention as such delegate. He is always found on the right side of every moral question and stands for Law and Order.

FEELS LIKE 16 YEAR OLD GIRL

Before Taking Stella Vitae Mrs. Rector Could Hardly Drag Herself Around.

"When I started taking Stella Vitae I was so weak and rundown I could hardly drag myself around the house," said Mrs. Kate Rector of Catoosa, Tenn.

"Two months ago I was so weak and rundown I had to give up my housework, as it was too much for me. I had little or no appetite and couldn't relish what little I did force down. My nerves were in a bad state and kept me from resting at night and I would get up feeling worse than when I went to bed.

"The few bottles of Stella Vitae I have taken have made a new person of me and I feel like a sixteen year old girl, although I am thirty-nine. I feel so grateful for what Stella Vitae has done for me that I feel it a duty to make it known to other women who may be suffering from female affections. I am certain it will help them as it has me."

Stella Vitae may be obtained from any druggist and the purchase price will be refunded if it fails to bring relief.

High School Dedication

We are pleased to announce that the new high school building will be formally dedicated on the night of September 10th with an address by Ex-Governor Charles Hillman Brough of Arkansas. Dr. Brough needs no introduction to a Mississippi audience. He is one of the South's greatest orators. His coming to Grenada will be greeted by a crowded auditorium. Admission will be free and you are invited to enjoy the address and rejoice with us in a high school building and a school auditorium that for so long has been a fond dream of the progressive citizenship of our little city.

Yours for the schools,

Officers, are doing all in their power to free the State of venereal diseases; hence all houses of ill fame should be abolished, since they are a menace to the public welfare. All breeding places for flies should be thoroughly cleaned every day, and all ditches drained or oiled to eradicate the mosquitoes.

Respectfully submitted,

City Health Officer

THE SAME IN WINONA

Winona Residents Speak Out for the Welfare of the Public.

It is just the same in Winona as here in Grenada; our friends there speak out in the same glad, earnest way as so many grateful Grenada men and women have spoken in these columns for years past.

Lem Thompson, foreman, Cotton Mill, Winona, Miss., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a great kidney medicine. Several years ago I was working at the carpenter trade and I believe the straining caused kidney trouble. My kidneys were weak and annoyed me day and night. The heavy dull ache across my back and hips was a great annoyance, making it difficult for me to move. After giving Doan's Kidney Pills a fair test, I found they were just as they had been recommended. My cure has stood the test of several years. It is seldom that I take Doan's now only when I think it advisable to flush my kidneys."

MANAGEMENT PLEASED AT GLENWILD HOG SALE

backs, symmetry, quality style and flash that is responsible for the five national grand championships won by the sons and daughters of Orion Cherry King; for the repeated winning of the get of Orion Cherry King in get of sire classes; and for the winning of the first and second in get of sire class on the get of Scissors and Jackson's Orion King in 1920 and 1919 respectively.

In offering these sows bred to Scissors, national grand champion in 1917, to Jackson's Orion King, international grand champion in 1919, and full brother to Orion Cherry King, Jr., national grand champion in 1916, to Jack T., the best son of Jackson's Orion King, and to Ex-terminator, the sire of the big, smoothtype sows sold in January by Fernwood Farms, the plantation was selling the best blood of the great Orion Cherry King family. Practically all litters from the sows sold will be line bred Orion Cherry Kings.

A large part of the offering was made up of Scissors gilts bred to Jackson's Orion King or of Jackson's Orion King gilts bred to Scissors.

The sows not only have the best of breeding, but are excellent individuals. The large size of the Glenwild sow herd made it possible to select an offering of top sows and gilts without throwing in sows of poor quality to fill the offering. Every animal offered was either a gilt or a young sow that has raised only one litter. Every one was registered and all had had double treatment against hog cholera. The average brought by the offering was $44, which seems extremely low for such quality. However, the management of Glenwild Plantation states that it is highly pleased over the success of the sale; on account of the recent decline in the hog market not so much was expected of the sale. It was hoped to place a number of the sows and gilts among breeders in this territory in order to further increase the awakening interest in purebreds. Glenwild Plantation has only recently entered the hog business on a large scale, it was felt that this sale could not attract such great attention. It was hoped to get the animals scattered over the country and with their splendid quality to advertise thoroughly the Glenwild herds.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE DECLARES NOMINEES

117. The chairman stated that in his opinion the committee at its meeting the day after the first primary erred in not also declaring J. A. Gibson nominated. After some discussion, the committee voted unanimously to declare J. A. Gibson one of the nominees for Justice of the Peace, district 1, which action will make it unnecessary for the names of any candidates for this office to be on the ticket at the second primary.

The written withdrawal of W. T. Turner from the race for Justice of the Peace, district 5, caused the committee to declare J. D. Fisackerly one of the nominees for J. P. in that district.

The following, adopted by the State Committee Aug. 14, was adopted:

"In view of the fact that the Constitutional amendment granting the right of suffrage to the women was not incorporated into the Constitution until January, 1922, it is therefore ordered that no woman otherwise qualified to vote in the primary election Aug. 28, 1923, shall be denied the right to vote because of failure to pay poll tax for the year 1921."

A Vote in First Primary Does Not Necessarily Mean Vote in Second Primary.

On motion the following was adopted: The Committee desires to remind election officers that the primary regulations and the law should be strictly followed, and although one may have voted in the first primary who is not a Democrat, or was not otherwise qualified, he or she should not be allowed to vote in the second primary. In other words two wrongs do not make a right, and all diligence should be used to see that only those who meet the proper tests should vote.

Committee adjourned to meet Wednesday, August 29, at 1:30 o'clock p.m.

O. F. Lawrence, Chairman,
B. D. Newsom, Secretary.

INJURIES CAUSE DEATH

Funeral services were conducted last Friday afternoon at five o'clock at Bethel Church, west of Elliott Station, for Mrs. Lucinda Gant, aged 79 years, who died that morning from injuries sustained Thursday afternoon when a Chevrolet automobile in which she was riding with Mr. Baine and family of Elliott collided with the roadster of E. L. Austin. Mrs. Gant had been a life-long member of the Baptist Church and had held strictly to her religious principles all through life. She is survived by a number of relatives to whom The Sentinel extends its sympathy.

The accident, which resulted fatally to Mrs. Gant, occurred on the Jeff Davis Highway about a quarter of half mile north of Elliott. Mr. Austin was in his roadster coming from his place west of the I. C. R. R. and it was just after he had passed through the gate at the railroad that the two cars collided. Mrs. Gant's injuries were sustained when she either jumped or was thrown from the car as it went into a ditch on the east side of the highway. Others in the same car with her escaped practically unhurt.

REDUCTION IN PRICES BY WILLYS-OVERLAND

Toledo, Ohio, August 18.—John N. Willys, President of the Willys-Overland Company, Toledo, Ohio, today caused a furore in automobile circles by his announcement of immediate price reductions and great improvements in the 1923 Willys-Overland lines.

This action embracing a drop in price on the Willys-Knight touring car and roadster models from $1235 to $1175, F. O. B. factory, and on the Willys-Knight Coupe-Sedan from $1595 to $1550, came as a distinct surprise to the automobile industry and motoring public in view of the advance in price made by not a few manufacturers in announcing their 1924 models.

The new values in Willys-Knight and Overland cars are the direct result of the wonderful sales and production records made by the Willys-Overland Company this year, eclipsing any previous period in its history, which determined the officials of the company to share with the public the appreciable saving in costs made possible by an enormous increase in business.

Mr. Willys added that in every detail all the advantages of the Willys-Knight car have been retained, while improvements have been added, making this car, powered with the famous Willys-Knight sleeve valve motor, a bigger value than ever before.

This announcement has great significance because it marks a new valuation record for automotive products in the face of a generally rising market in raw materials.

GARNER EXPRESSES THANKS

Jackson, Miss., Aug. 21, 1923.

To the People of Grenada County: From the very bottom of my heart I thank my many friends for the loyal support they gave me which made it possible for me to lead my nearest opponent by more than thirty thousand votes in the recent primary, and come within less than fourteen thousand votes of the nomination.

I wish to urge my friends to continue the fight until the last vote is cast on August 28th.

Sincerely yours,

P. P. GARNER,
Candidate for Re-election as Commissioner of Agriculture

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The preaching services at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, August 26, will be conducted by Rev. J. W. Young of Greenville. Mr. Young is in Grenada visiting his father, Dr. J. W. Young, and has kindly consented to fill the pulpit at the morning service. He is known to most of the townspeople, having been born and reared here, and is a gifted and able minister. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

SERVICES IN PARK

The Sentinel has been requested to announce that the services in the park Sunday night will be of especial interest to young men and young women and all who can be urged to attend. Rev. Eugene Farr, of the First Baptist Church, will do the preaching and all who have had the privilege to hear him since he has been in Grenada know that he will have something to say that is worth while.

ALWAYS CURES

The effects of poisonous germs in the blood is understood today as never before. Many persons do not realize that a poisonous germ can not get in the blood in one part of the body without immediately affecting every other part or organ.

Almost every case of Rheumatism, Indigestion and Kidney trouble is a sympathetic strike by the brain, nerves or stomach, brought on by impurities or impoverishment of the blood.

Leonardi's Blood Elixir is the one remedy which cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Blood Poison, Tumors, Ulcers and diseases of the blood. It drives out of the system all poisonous germs and impurities. It gives energy, vigor and health to the sick.

Severe Indigestion

"I had very severe attacks of indigestion," writes Mr. M. H. Wade, a farmer, of R. F. D. 1, Weir, Miss. "I would suffer for months at a time. All I dared eat was a little bread and butter... consequently I suffered from weakness. I would try to eat, then the terrible suffering in my stomach! I took medicines, but did not get any better. The druggist recommended

THINK MISSISSIPPIANS: Then Vote:

HENRY L. WHITFIELD

Henry L. Whitfield is conducting a clean campaign. Because of his integrity and unsullied character he could not do otherwise. It is neither necessary for him to use signed statements as to character nor to stage sensational situations to call attention to himself.

Unencumbered and Unbought

If elected governor, Mr. Whitfield will go into office absolutely unpromised and unbought. He has not made the least semblance of a promise to any man or set of men for their influence and support. He is basing his appeal for the suffrage of loyal Mississippians upon the eternal principles of decency and civic righteousness. He is running on his own merits as a man and his ability to serve his people.

To the Farmer

He says: "To my own mind the most pressing and overshadowing problem of the present is that of making agriculture remunerative. Farming must be made profitable or we will become bankrupt."

To Labor

He says: "I have stated in all my speeches and I adhere to it, that I recognize the inherent right of labor to organize and collectively bargain for wages and its every right should be guaranteed by the law and the executive power of the state."

To Business Men

He says: "I am a friend to all honest business and believe such should have every protection. New capital should be brought into the state to aid in the development of our resources and increase our taxable values. The state's affairs should be so fairly directed that no honest business should fear Mississippi and no dishonest business could stay in the state."

Law Enforcement

He says: "I will exert every effort to see that the laws of the state are enforced. I want to see the whiskey traffic completely suppressed. If elected, I promise the people that I will not pardon those who have been rightfully convicted of violating the prohibition laws and whose penalties are not excessive."

A WARNING

Our attention has been called to many misrepresentations being made on the eve of the primary. They vary as to the particular locality to suit the convenience of those who make them. A few of them, as fair samples are: That Mr. Whitfield has promised to discharge certain officers and install others in their places; that he opposes organized labor; that he is unorthodox in his religious beliefs. The people of Mississippi have long since caught on to this kind of propaganda and know how to treat it.

All Together Now For Victory

With his tremendous lead Mr. Whitfield goes into the second primary confident of his nomination to go to the polls. Victory is at hand. A new and better Mississippi is before us, one in which the spirit of confidence, friendliness and prosperity are dominant.

We will Win with Whitfield

WISCONSIN ENRICHED BY DIVERSIFICATION

Arthur Evans in a special article to the Chicago Tribune and Memphis Commercial Appeal, contributes a story that should be read by every Mississippian. He tells of Wisconsin, the "premier dairying state" and states that the "economic status" of the average farmer is better in Wisconsin than any of the farming states in the upper Mississippi Valley.

Milk prices have been good, demand beyond supply and everybody happy.

Based on sales for the first seven months, in comparison with previous years, Wisconsin will this year sell milk valued at seventy million dollars more than in 1922. Every farm in Wisconsin is a factory. They feed hay, corn and oats to their live stock and in this way make a real profit on these crops.

Mississippi, with its long growing season, its mild climate and its splendid marketing facilities, should immediately take up the problem of dairy farming, with its usual by-products of pigs and chickens.

Many noted examples of progress along these lines have been found within the past few weeks. Quitman, Clarke County, Miss., has just made a dairy survey. Several autos loaded with business men visited farmers in her trade territory and offered a practical method of helping them in the dairy business. The same movement is on in over five other counties in south Mississippi.

Great interest is being taken in poultry. Special attention is being put to this movement in Pearl River and Lamar Counties. Jones County has just established an enormous egg hatchery and one man in Forrest County is putting in another with a very large capacity.

The movement of cattle from the 21 quarantined counties is showing rapid growth since the opening of the central dipping and shipping station at Hattiesburg by the Mississippi Development Board. Several car loads are passing through each day. L. O. Crosby of Picayune, a Director of the Board, will equip another station at that place.

Preparations for enlarging truck and berry farming are going forward.

C. H. McLEOD DIES SUDDENLY

The many friends of C. H. McLeod in Dyersburg and this section were shocked when the news came in here last Tuesday evening announcing his sudden death at his home in Tiptonville. He was a visitor here last Sunday and appeared in the best of health. Monday and Tuesday, however, he complained of feeling badly and remained at home Tuesday. Death came suddenly at 3:15 that afternoon. Mrs. McLeod was with him when he expired. His son, Charles, Jr., had been with him during the day but had been away from home a short time when he learned of his father's death.

His remains were brought to Dyersburg Wednesday and funeral services were held Thursday morning by Rev. Geo. P. Scott at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.B. Maxey and interment took place at Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. McLeod was born in Oxford, Miss., July 18, 1875. He was first married to Miss Gertrude Lovelace and one son was born to this union, Charles, Jr., who survives his father. Mr. McLeod has been for the past two years assistant manager of the Tiptonville plant of the Lake County Manufacturing Co. He was considered one of the best accountants in the state and was well posted on oil mill business. He was for several years office manager of the Dyersburg office of the Lake County Manufacturing Co. For one year he was manager of the Covington plant of the same concern.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and while located in Dyersburg was an officer in that congregation.—Dyersburg (Tenn.) Gazette.

The deceased had numerous friends and acquaintances here having visited his brother, W. A. McLeod, and family at various times.

In five or six southern counties, Mississippi is fast waking up to the idea that she must feed herself.

Great interest is being manifested in "Mississippi Products" week proposed for sometime in October, a week in which to prove that Mississippi can feed herself.

MR. HOLTON'S RECORD REVIEWED

It seems to me that experience and observation teach us to count very little on promises which are not backed by past performances. The record always speaks louder than promises.

My Honorable Opponent was once an employee of the State Plant Board of Florida. If reports which come back to Mississippi from Florida are true, he was summarily dismissed from this position.

Why is he not still in the service of the live and prosperous city of Tupelo as Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce if he showed the intelligence and "pep" featured so much in his campaign literature? It is hardly to be believed that the hustling business men of that city would have let him go had his services justified the value that he attaches to them in his campaign literature.

The people of Mississippi might like to know why it was that Dr. D. C. Hull, President of the A. & M. College, asked the State Plant Board of Mississippi to remove him from the College Campus.

The people of Mississippi might like to know why he was transferred from Calkin Academy in Warren County to the Oak Ridge School in the same County and given another chance to make good. If he made good in the Oak Ridge School, why was his assistant named to succeed him, this action of the Board of Trustees coming to him like a clap of thunder out of a clear sky?

BREWER AND STEPHENS SPEAK IN BEHALF OF HENRY L. WHITFIELD

less of what fate brought him, he would always feel a great debt of gratitude to Grenada County.

About Factional Ballots.
Mr. Brewer said that he was not here as a candidate for any office, that he was not in politics, and that he did not have to trim his sails to suit any breeze, but that he was here as one citizen to talk to another citizen about the politics of Mississippi and the business management of the state government. He said that there is a class of voters in Mississippi who do not vote their own ideas or select their own candidates, but that they vote a factional ballot, a ballot that is dictated by some so-called leader or boss at Jackson or at some other place. This class of voters, he said, were not open to any appeal, and he said he felt that anything that he might say to them would fall on deaf ears. But his appeal, he said, was to the man and the woman of open mind; to the man and the woman who realized that the officers they elect today and the politics of government they endorse today effect their children tomorrow; the man and the woman who wanted to do the best for their children and who were careful of the good name of Mississippi—to these, he said, he hoped to bring a message that would be helpful to them in determining their ballot Aug. 28.

Mr. Brewer said that the four years he served in the governor's office gave him a knowledge of the state's affairs and of the politics of Mississippi above the average citizen, and he said he felt it a patriotic duty to give the people the benefit of the knowledge he had gained through the preferment they had given him in choosing him to be their governor.

He said that he felt sure that if the people were fully aware of what had been going on with their business for the past seven years, they would rise as one man from one end of the state to the other and drive those who have been in power out of office. He asked that the people read again his farewell message to the Legislature, delivered in January 1916, which message, he said, could be found in either the House or Senate Journal of that year, and they would see that he foresaw at that time much of what has happened, and which has made the people of other states marvel that a state which had furnished a Lamar, a Davis, a George and a Walthall, would tolerate the "runts and the grafters of the past seven years."

"Picking a Governor."
In seeking to emphasize his assertion that there are many who vote what some self-styled leader or boss says vote, he stated that committee of the faction of the man opposing Whitfield met in Jackson to say who "should run for governor." This committee, he said, picked ten of the "faithful" and they went into a horrible "secret caucus" and then chose five other men to sit with them and together this 15 anointed "picked a governor for you, my countrymen." Mr. Brewer said. He said that he was reliably informed that before the committee of 15 acted that they swore Mr. Franklin and Mr. Whitfield's opponent that they would abide by their decision. The committee acted and selected Mr. Franklin, but in spite of his oath. "He double crossed his friend and got into the race anyhow and is today opposing Whitfield." Mr. Brewer said. Mr. Brewer called attention to the political atmosphere and conditions that would embolden 15 men to brazenly undertake to name a governor for 2,000,000 people.

He said that one of the reasons why state taxes were so high and that assessments had increased was the creation of offices by the administration which came into power in 1916, the chief of which was asking another term. He said that the man who is now opposing Whitfield sought to build up the most gigantic political machine by the creation of a game warden, the appointment of a county game warden and then the naming of beat game wardens. This law provided for 492 new offices at one swoop, he said, and but for the fact that the law was knocked out by the courts, would have enabled the man then governor, and the one who was stealthily behind it, to reach with his political fingers into every neighborhood of Mississippi. Besides this law, Mr. Brewer showed that this man has created the pardon board, a board which has no more standing under the constitution than the fifth wheel of a wagon.

Then there were several other boards, he said, all of which were intended to provide jobs for hangers-on and political satellites. He said that he was no sooner out of office than this man added 45 to the payroll of one of the state's benevolent institutions and that under this management a few months later, the Legislature by investigation found graft.

Mr. Brewer said that taking care of political pets and hangers-on did not stop with the state's benevolent institutions, but that it began at the very top, and that he was sorry to have to say that it was found in the colleges and in the university under the present administration. He said that the law says that the head of the A. & M. College shall not be paid over $4800, per year yet he is drawing today $6,000, or $1,200 more every year than the law allows. He cited the fact that the law says that the secretary of the university, who is a brother of the present governor's former law partner, shall not be paid over $2,500 per year, yet he is paid by subterfuge $4,500 per year and furnished a residence besides. He said that he could cite many other such instances, and he inquired, "Do you wonder my fellow countrymen that your taxes have been increased and that property values in Mississippi during the past seven years have been raised by the tax commission, a commission created by the man who is asking another four years, when you see how your rights have been trafficked in by these men?"

He said that the same paying beyond what the law allows ran through all the state colleges except the M. S. C. W. but there the present administration had favored one of its satellites by raising the salary of his office from $2000 to $3600 and allowance of $600 for a residence besides. If this much has already been brought to light, he asked, what would an investigation of all payrolls of the some near twenty state institutions reveal?

"The Official Record."
Mr. Brewer said that he was giving a bill of particulars; he was citing what is a matter of official record.

He said that as one of the excuses for increased assessments and the increase in the tax levies, it was sometimes cited that certain state enterprises were launched, referring to the tubercular sanitarium, the institution for incorrigible youths, the centennial exposition buildings and others, but still these, he stated, were built with bond issues, bond issues which just increase the mortgages on the property of the people of the state.

He said that when the Legislature meets in January it will find a deficit for current expenses of about five million dollars. He said that if the state tax levy had been raised to take care of what had been spent and the grafting that had been done, that instead of 8 mills today, the people would be paying 32½ mills. He said the bond issues kept the people as a whole fooled because bonds were something that did not have to be paid today while tax levies come every year.

Mr. Brewer referred again to the standard of morals and the conceptions of right which would allow the colleges, which come next to the home and the church in molding the life of the young, to defy the law when it comes to salaries, and the conditions which have prevailed in Mississippi for the past several years could be accounted for only upon the hypothesis that the people had slackened up enough to elect a self-confessed law-breaker and proven moral delinquent to the highest office within their gift. He said that when a man of that type is allowed to slip into the governor's office, the people can expect nothing but a descending standard among their officials.

Mr. Brewer said that he thought the returns of the first primary indicated that the people were tired of useless offices and useless boards; that they were tired of waste of public funds. He cited the Scripture, which says, "the people mourn when the wicked are in authority."

Mr. Brewer held up to his audience H. L. Whitfield as "a clean, honest, upright man and as a loyal and dependable citizen." He said that Whitfield had been true everywhere else and that nobody in all these years has pointed the accusing finger at him. He asked that "Whitfield and his opponent be weighed in the same scales and that test be applied which God-fearing people would want applied to him who was to be the guardian of your children after you have passed over the river." Mr. Brewer said that he felt sure that this was going to be done, and if there had ever been the least doubt about it, the ballot of the "good women has written in letters of gold that Whitfield's opponent shall never again hold office in Mississippi."

A great audience assembled to hear these distinguished speakers. There were people here from Vaiden near where Gov. Brewer was reared, from Winona, Charleston and other points. The speeches were well received and undoubtedly had a fine effect on opening wide the eyes of the public and towards crystallizing sentiment for Whitfield.
